

For the Third Straight Year, CWV and CEO Barbara Doyle named to Boston Globe Magazine/Commonwealth Institute's Top 100 List

October 28, 2017, Bedford, MA – For the third year in a row, the Boston Globe Magazine and its partner the Commonwealth Institute have named Carleton-Willard Village and its CEO Barbara Doyle as one of the 2017 Top 100 Women-Led Businesses in Massachusetts. The for-profit and non-profit Top 100 include businesses and female leaders from a wide range of industry sectors including finance, health care, education and retail. The selection was made based on businesses' revenue or operating budget, number of fulltime employees in Massachusetts, workplace and management diversity, and innovation.

The full list of honorees was announced at the 16th Annual Top 100 Women-Led Businesses in Massachusetts Award Breakfast on October 27th and is included in the Boston Globe Magazine's October 29th issue Women and Power.
