

Carleton-Willard Village in Bedford Announces the Appointment of Christopher J. Golen as its next President and CEO

Bedford, Massachusetts, April 11, 2023

The Trustees of Carleton-Willard Village (CWV), one of the earliest nonprofit continuing care communities in Massachusetts, announced that Christopher J. Golen has been appointed as its next President and CEO.

The Trustees launched a nationwide search for its next CEO after Barbara A. Doyle announced her retirement to the Board in April 2022. Ms. Doyle is retiring after 41 years of exemplary leadership at CWV and establishing a national reputation for CWV as a leader in high quality retirement living and health care for the elderly.

Mr. Golen, or as he prefers, Chris, has extensive executive experience in continuing care retirement communities in Massachusetts with a proven record of success in all facets of community life and management. “Chris is known for his attention to the well-being of community Residents as well as an extensive knowledge of the business aspects of life care communities,” commented John Cupples, Chair of the Board of Carleton-Willard Homes, Inc.

Mr. Golen will join the management team at Carleton-Willard Village on Monday, April 24, 2023.

About Carleton-Willard Village:

Carleton-Willard Village, located at 100 Old Billerica Road, Bedford, Massachusetts, is owned by Carleton-Willard Homes, Inc., a nonprofit corporation with a mission of providing the highest quality of independent living and long-term healthcare to the elderly. At its Bedford campus, CWV provides the highest quality senior independent living in cluster homes and luxury apartments, supportive living, long term health care and memory care. Carleton-Willard Homes also owns Carleton-Willard at Home, providing supportive services for members wishing to maintain an active lifestyle in their own homes.

Carleton-Willard Village in Bedford Announces the Appointment of Christopher J. Golen as its next President and CEO

For Further Information, Contact:

Kathy Crosby, Director of Sales and Marketing
Carleton-Willard Village
100 Old Billerica Road
Bedford, MA 01730
Phone: 781-275-8700